

The University of Texas System Group Term Life Benefit Highlights for Retired Employees

Eligibility: All benefits eligible retired employees may enroll for coverage. Please see your UT Benefits Handbook for Retired Employees or contact your institution Benefits Office for questions on eligibility.

Basic Life Benefit: $6,000

Voluntary Life Benefit*:

Retired Employees: You may choose $7,000, $10,000, $25,000, or $50,000.

Dependent Spouse: $3,000

 Guarantee Issue Amount:

1. When you first move from active employment to a retired employee without a break in service, you are guaranteed coverage up to the amount of Voluntary Life coverage you had in force as an active employee to a maximum of $50,000.
2. After your initial eligibility period to elect Voluntary Life coverage as a retired employee, Evidence of Insurability is required for any increase in Voluntary Life benefits during annual enrollment or following a qualified change in status event.
3. Evidence of Insurability is required on all spouses of retired employees who elect to enroll for Voluntary Life insurance. However, this requirement will be waived if your spouse was enrolled for Voluntary Life on the last day you were an active employee.

Premium: The System pays 100% of the premium for the Basic benefit. You pay 100% of the premium for Voluntary benefits.

Basic and Voluntary Life insurance include the following benefits:

- Conversion Privilege
- Seat Belt Benefit
- Accelerated Death Benefit

Limitations: Benefits are not payable on Voluntary Life benefits if death is caused by suicide, or attempted suicide, while sane or insane within 2 years of the coverage effective date.

Note: You must be insured for Voluntary Life benefits in order to elect benefits for your spouse. Group Term Life benefits are not available to a retired employee's dependent children.
