

Resource List
(Revised March 2023)
Annual Risk Management Education (RME)

REQUIRED ANNUAL RISK MANAGEMENT EDUCATION (RME) HOURS = 5 hrs. by June 30 of each year

RESIDENTS: RME Online Courses available at: Med-IQ

(Passing score of 70% on each unit is required.) All Med-IQ courses are CME approved. Accessing online courses from a European Union Country is strictly prohibited.

FACULTY & OTHER HEALTHCARE PROVIDERS: The following list is not intended to be exhaustive of events or activities that can qualify for RME credit, it is intended to provide a general list of alternate ways to satisfy the annual RME requirement. The Institution shall maintain documentation of RME credit compliance. Hour for hour of attendance or participation in these activities can be earned, up to 5 hours maximum for any one event/activity.

- RME Online Courses available at: Med-IQ
- Risk Management Orientation session for New Physicians (scheduled by Legal Services)
- Annual appointment to and service on a peer review committee, including Professional Liability Committee, Institutional Ethics Committee, Clinical Research Committees, and Institutional Quality Improvement Committee. Service on other committees approved by institutional Risk Manager on a case-by-case basis.
- Peer review of U.T. and non-U.T. medical records (per case)
- Root Cause Analysis (per case)
- Medical Malpractice Cases: Service as an expert witness in medical malpractice cases or attendance at Medical Malpractice Trials
- Attending seminars or conference, including those sponsored by professional medical societies or accredited institutions, that include sessions in the following areas: effective physician-patient communication, Ethics, medical documentation, patient safety, or other risk-related areas of practice (only the portions related to risk or safety may be credited).
- Attendance at institutional or departmental risk management presentations
- Attendance at M&M Conference (must be identified on sign-in sheet or minutes)
- Protocol Review and Protocol Audits
- Authoring articles for professional journals related to effective communication, medical documentation, safety, and medical malpractice or risk management. Approval for credit obtained via Institutional Plan Liaison.

If you have any questions or comments about this list or activities that qualify, please contact

RME-Questions@utsystem.edu