

Program & Administrative Changes Approval Workflow University of Texas System

• Creation of new departments, movement of degree programs across departments, and non-honorary department name changes that do not result in the establishment of a new school or college can be submitted directly to the THECB.