The charge made by Mr. Lemmon to Mr. Commin, and the time on which the same bore, was so great that the account claimed to be due for the same was one half of the entire amount. The charge was not fully sustained, but at the time Mr. Lemmon did not feel warranted to allow all the charges made by Mr. Lemmon. At the time Mr. Lemmon did not feel warranted to allow all the charges made by Mr. Lemmon, Mr. Commin was asked to return to the Board and to resume the charge, and as a result of the arrangement of Mr. Commin's account, it was decided to return the account charged for three months and to return the sum of $100,000, which Mr. Lemmon had paid in advance.

The Board of Directors was requested to state the character and the amount of the charge made by Mr. Commin and Lemmon, and it was agreed that Mr. Commin's account should not exceed $200,000, and as the amount charged was only $10,000, the amount charged was returned to the Board.
