Dear Mrs. Blumberg and Gentlemen:

I hasten to send to you a copy of the Regents' Rules and Regulations, Part One as revised and as amended at the Regents' meeting on February 9, 1979.

I am now in the process of making editorial changes in Part Two and hope to distribute that at an early date. There was only one amendment to Part Two at the Regents' meeting in February.

If you have any questions regarding this volume, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

BOARD OF REGENTS

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS SYSTEM

BETTY ANNE THEOFORD, SECRETARY
BOX N
AUSTIN, TEXAS 78712

March 8, 1979

Mr. Thos. H. Law
2600 Fort Worth National Bank Building
Fort Worth, Texas 76102

Dear Mr. Law:

I want to thank you very much for lending me your "marked" copy of the Regents' Rules and Regulations, Part One. It is returned in this package.

Also enclosed is a list of the editorial changes that we have made in this volume of the rules in addition to the substantive changes that are outlined in the Minutes of February 8-9, 1979. There still is a question in my mind about the following:

Chapter I, Section 5.26

It is my opinion that all documents signed by the Chairman of the Board should be attested by the Secretary. With that in mind, Sec. 5.26 does not need "and requiring attestation" and especially in view of Sec. 3.25.

Chapter I, Section 7.13

This is not exactly the way we operate now.

Chapter III, Section 1.83(g)
Section 1.83(h)

Do you think the last words in both of these sections would sound better if we said "to any one of these titles?"

Chapter III, Section 3

We left this section as it was; however, it is a rather long involved sentence.

Sincerely yours,

T:mg
