Back to School

While your family's back to school season may be very different this year, remember LifeCare can provide personalized support and tools as you navigate the academic year ahead.

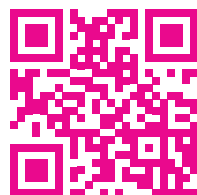

We can help with all this and more:

- Find a child care center able to assist with virtual learning
- Research state requirements and curriculum for homeschooling
- Identify free programs to supplement virtual learning for all ages
- Pre-screened professional tutoring and homework support options
- Locate a local service offering free hot meals for students
- Help arrange before- and after-school care
- Work with a family of a special needs child to identify additional support
- Provide information on extracurricular programs for active kids

Plus, you have exclusive access to back to school savings on products and services nationwide with LifeMart.

Getting help from us online is easy, too. Access events, articles and more to help you make this school year a success!
