Q4. What activities did your campus do to celebrate UT System Day? Briefly Describe

1	President Colasurdo encouraged everyone to wear their favorite UT alum or UTHHealth apparel and show support for our University of Texas heritage. The President wished to provide EVERYONE with a sustainable way to honor our history by bringing our history into the present. UTHHealth has launched a special blog, to be posted throughout the year, filled with surprising anecdotes about our history. From the birth of UT System in 1881 to the untold stories behind the creation of the Texas Medical Center and our six schools, knowing the personal histories of the men and women who founded this institution is a wonderful way to honor and appreciate who we are as a family of UT professional schools. The first of the series includes a link to the first "handwritten" minutes of the Board of Regents http://www.uth.edu/blog/bout-time/ . Poncho's (a local Mexican fast-food restaurant), and quite a bit of fruit (bananas, apples and oranges) as well as coffee and orange juice. And last, but not least, we had our UTPA tuba/euphonium polka quartet perform. Our President was not able to attend as he got called into a meeting by UT System, but our VP for Business Affairs was the "MC" for the morning. At 9:15 we took a group photo taken by the University Photographer in front of the visitor's center.	Nov 25, 2013 4:05 PM
